Respected Sir,

It is my pleasure to inform you about a significant initiative that the Department of Posts (DoP) is launching in collaboration with the Ministry of Youth Affairs. This experiential learning initiative for youth will be integrated into the My Bharat portal of Ministry of Youth Affairs and aims to engage youth for the Dak Chaupal program, and provide them with valuable exposure to the functioning of government, postal services, and community engagement activities.

2. This program is scheduled to commence in the second week of August targeting graduate and undergraduate youth up to the age of 29 years. Through this program, participants will:

a. Experience Postal Services: Youth will gain first hand experience of various postal service understanding their significance and operational processes.

b. Learn about the Postal System: Participants will be exposed to the inner working of the postal system, including administrative processes, service delivery, and customer interaction.

c. Engage in Dak Chaupals: Dak Chaupals serve as a platform to promote Central/state/local government schemes and services provided to common citizens, especially in rural and remote areas. The youth can play a crucial role in disseminating information about these schemes in the Dak Chaupals.

d. Conduct Surveys: Participants will also conduct surveys, thereby learning valuable skills in data collection and analysis.

3. The primary objective of this initiative is to provide experiential learning opportunities, promote community volunteering, and foster a deeper understanding of government functions among the youth. This program will not only enhance their Knowledge but also inspire them to contribute meaningfully to society.

4. I seek your support in promoting this initiative by activating the state/local government machinery and in encouraging youth from (Name of the State) to actively participate and register on the MyBharat Portal (<https://mybharat.gov.in>) for the experiential learning programs that will soon be posted by the Department of Posts. Your assistance in disseminating information through various channels will be invaluable.

5. Thank forward to your positive response and support in making this initiative a grand success.

With professed regards,

Yours sincerely,
