

College annual day

NEW DELHI: Dr. Bhim Rao Ambedkar College organised its Annual Day Function 2019 on February 12 in the college premises to honour the students who did well in academics and extra-curricular activities in the academic year 2018-19.

M.S. Vats anchored the event and welcomed the chief guest, Manoj Kumar, IAS, and guests of honour Vivek Verma, IRS, Rajnikant, IPS and Atul K Thakur, IPS. The event was inaugurated by lighting of the lamp by the guests and Saraswati Vandana. Principal G.K. Arora, presented the Annual Report 2018-19 in which he introduced the achievements of the college. He mentioned the great accomplishments of the college in the academic session 2018-19. The college provides education to 3,100 students through regular and about 2,000 students in NCWEB & SOL through distance education. Mr. Arora mentioned a number of college activities, including how the session begins with orientation day every year and how a number of events like Baba Saheb Memorial Lecture, Vigilance Awareness Week, North East Cell (Ek Bharat Shreshta Bharat) Week are organised every year in the college. Principal, Mr. Arora also highlighted that three national level seminars and two international conferences organised by the college in the last academic session. The best cadet of NCC was selected from this college. The college also organised TEDx BRAC event.