PRESS RELEASE College Annual Fest : Chetna Utkarsh 2024 Day 2

2nd February, Day two of the Annual Cultural Fest Chetna Utkarsh 2024, organised by Dr Bhim Rao Ambedkar College, University of Delhi, began with great pomp and show. After the fun packed day one of the festival, where the participants showed off their skills in a plethora of on and off Stage events, the second day of the fest brought along more excitement and enthusiasm.

The guests of the occasion were given warm reception by the College family. Highlighting the need for relocating our cultural Identity as Bhartiya, the officiating principal of the College Prof R.N. Dubey, in his welcome speech, emphasized that such cultural carnivals take us back to our Bhartiya roots and make the youngsters understand the futility of imitating the western culture. Prof Dubey said that the College Annual Fest is an occasion to give First hand exposure to rich cultural and Philosophical heritage, & linguistic Plurality of our country. Chief Guest of the day Dr Rajesh Singh, University Librarian and Head DULS, University of Delhi, appreciated the theme of the fest stating that Chetna Utkarsh will help us relocate our identity as Indians. Prof Singh said that the creativity and knowledge we gain here will be a guiding principle for life long. Prof Pankaj Tyagi, the Chairman of the College managing Committee, elaborated the significance of the program as an occasion of generating consciousness that combines knowledge, experience and creativity. Prof Tyagi also praised the Guard of Honour paid by the NCC cadets of the College.

As the frenzy of the day intensified the enchanting folk dances, western dance, performed by different dance groups from various colleges, mesmerizing Rap Battle and war of DJ drew the crowd wild with excitement. The crowd was enthralled by grooving tunes played by the various participants. Events were followed with announcement of prizes and distribution of certificates and prizes to the winners.

The efforts of the College Cultural committee, under the convenorship of Prof Jaya Verma, was highly appreciated and acknowledged by all.
